Roundtable Commercial Real Estate

Utah Business partnered with Dentons Durham Jones Pinegar to host a roundtable event featuring Utah's commercial real estate leaders. Moderated by Brandon Fugal, chairman at Colliers, they discussed interest rates, the sustainability of hybrid work, multi-family dwellings and more. Here are a few highlights from the event.

U.S. News Best Places

U.S. News analyzed the 150 most populous metro areas to find the best places to live. To make the top of the list, a place had to have good value, be a desirable place to live, and have a strong job market and a high quality of life.

What's next for Smith's Ballpark? Salt Lake City unveils potential options

The nine finalists are divided into three categories: professional design, resident design and post-secondary student design. The nine design concepts were picked by a selection committee, including Ballpark various neighborhood residents, said Andrew Wittenberg, a spokesman for the Salt Lake City Mayor's Office.

The tallest buildings in Salt Lake City and the changing skyline

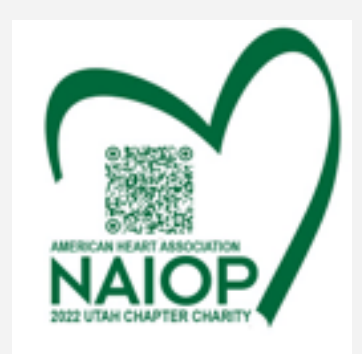

"For decades, it was believed the Church Office Building could not be surpassed in height, which, of course, was a myth," said Brandon Fugal, the chairman for Colliers International, which is the largest commercial real estate firm in Utah.
