Amid controversy, inland ports begin construction this summer

This summer, construction will begin on the first dry port in the state, but it's far from the only one planned.

Historic 25th Street apartment building work halted due to wood issues

Construction of a five-story apartment building on Historic 25th Street in Ogden has been on hold since late March due to use of wood framing that is insufficiently fireproof, according to city officials.

Midyear report for SLC multi-family: strong fundamentals amidst cooling off

As investors nationwide throw on the brakes building new projects and making big transactions, the greater Salt Lake area has certainly lurched into slowdown mode.
