

It's time to register for SYMPOSIUM!

REGISTER HERE

Mark your calendar for the NAIOP Symposium coming up on Wednesday morning, February 7th at the Grand America. Annually attracting over 700 of Utah's top commercial real estate leaders, the Symposium fulfills our mission of education, networking, and legislative advocacy for the commercial real estate development community. Come join the tradition—the largest annual CRE event in Utah—and learn from top local and national industry experts about current trends and how to navigate the coming year.

(As always CE Credit is available)

National Economic Update

Office Panel
Moderated by

Industrial Panel
Moderated by

Retail Panel
Moderated by
Andy Moffitt

Multi-Family Panel
Moderated by
Mark Jensen

Legislative Advocacy
Moderated by
Stuart Clason

Olympics in 2034 and what that means for Utah's CRE industry

Erin Mendenhall, Mayor, Salt Lake City

"We are one step closer to welcoming athletes, champions, and our neighbors from across the world to experience the Greatest Snow on Earth," said Mayor Mendenhall.

"The endless opportunities for Salt Lake City will only magnify over the coming years as we prepare to host the world again. I am especially excited for our youth—our homegrown athletes—who are training in our legacy facilities and venues as we speak."

-Erin Mendenhall, Mayor, Salt Lake City

---

Don't miss out on the "Tradition."
Click below for a link to register:

REGISTER HERE

Copyright (C) *|JANURARY 16, 2024|* *|NAIOPUTAH.ORG:|*. All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe