

Announcing the NAIOP UTAH 2024 Charity Partner

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NAIOP Utah Chapter Announces Huntsman Mental Health Foundation as Designated Charity Partner for 2024-2025

Salt Lake City, UT – June 1, 2024 – The NAIOP Utah Chapter is proud to announce Huntsman Mental Health Foundation (HMHF) as its designated charity partner for the 2024-2025 period, effective June 1, 2024. This partnership aims to amplify awareness and support for mental health initiatives across Utah, benefiting from the robust platform and network of NAIOP members.

"We are thrilled to partner with the Huntsman Mental Health Foundation, an organization dedicated to advancing mental health care and research," said Jason England, 2024 NAIOP Utah President. "Together we aim to make a significant impact on the mental well-being of our community, particularly our teenagers and kids."

Throughout the year, HMHF will be prominently featured in several key NAIOP events, providing multiple touch points for engagement and fundraising:

- NAIOP Golf Tournament 2024 (June 2024): This flagship event will kick off the partnership, with remarks from special guest, David Huntsman. Attendees will have the opportunity to engage with HMHF leaders. A formal check presentation to HMHF will be a highlight of the day. More details can be found here.

- NAIOPOLY (September 2024): Known for its innovative approach to networking and philanthropy, NAIOPOLY will feature a special Community Chest segment where funds collected will be donated to HMHF.
- Holiday Black Tie Event (Jingle & Mingle – Early December 2024): This festive gala will provide an elegant setting for members to support HMHF while celebrating the season of giving.
- Annual Symposium (January 2025): The symposium will offer a platform for HMHF to share insights and advancements in mental health care, fostering deeper understanding.

"Mental health is a crucial aspect of overall health, and we are honored to support theHuntsman Mental Health Foundation through our events and initiatives,"said Cheyenne Hawks, Executive Director NAIOP Utah. "We encourage our members and partners to contribute generously to this worthy cause."
